President.

SIR JOHN HAWKSHAW, C.E., F.R.S., &c. NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS OF MEMOIRS.—Authors are reminded that, under an arrangement dating from 1871, the acceptance of Memoirs, and the days on which they are to be read, are now, as far as possible, determined by Organising Committees for the several Sections before the beginning of the Meeting. It has therefore become necessary, in order to give an opportunity to the Committees of doing justice to the several communications, that each author should prepare an abstract of his Memoir, of a length suitable for insertion in the published Transactions of the Association, and that he should send it, together with the original Memoir, by post, on or before August 11, addressed thus:—"General Secretaries, British Association, 22, Albemarle Street, London, W." For Section..... If it should be inconvenient to the Author that his paper should be read on any particular day, he is requested to send information thereof to the Secretaries in a separate note.

G. GRIFFITH, M.A., Assistant General Secretary, Harrow.

DOG DISEASES TREATED BY HOMOEOPATHY. By JAMES MOORE, M.R.C.V.S.

"Those who love their dogs will be thankful to Mr. Moore for his little manual on canine ailments. . . . Valuable hints for their management in health are also given."—Homoeopathic World.
 "So rapid was the sale of this useful little book that the publishers have been encouraged to prepare a second edition, which gives us the opportunity of recommending it to those who have not previously read it. The volume in itself is but small, but in valuable information is correspondingly extensive; copious and useful hints are given on feeding, exercising, doctoring, nursing, and dog-buying; and there is something to learn on every page. We cannot pay the book a higher compliment than wishing it a corner in every dog-owner's library."—The Fancier's Gazette.

"The little work under review contains a great deal of valuable information, and it should be in the hands of all those who make pets or turn to use the canine species."—The Civil Service Gazette.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast-tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.

NATURAL HISTORY.

DIAGRAMS OF NATURAL HISTORY.

These Diagrams, compiled by the eminent Scientific Men whose names are appended, are drawn with the strictest regard to Nature, and engraved in the best style of art. The series consists of Eleven Subjects, each arranged so that it may be mounted in one sheet, or be divided into four sections and folded in the form of a book, thus rendering them available either for Class Exercises or Individual Study.

Price of each, Mounted on Roller and Varmined, 6s.;
 or Folded in Book form, 4s.

I. CHARACTERISTIC BRITISH FOSSILS. By J. W. LOWRY, F.R.G.S.

Exhibits nearly 600 of the more prominent forms of Organic remains found in British Strata, arranged in the order of their occurrence, and accompanied by a column showing the succession and thickness of the strata and the mineral character of each formation.

II. CHARACTERISTIC BRITISH TERTIARY FOSSILS. By J. W. LOWRY, F.R.G.S.

This Diagram is similarly arranged to No. 1, and illustrates upwards of 800 specimens of the Tertiary Formation, indicating the local series to which they belong, the formation in which they exist, the proportions of the engravings to the natural size, and whether still found living.

III. FOSSIL CRUSTACEA. By J. W. SALTER, A.L.S., F.G.S., and H. WOODWARD, F.G.S., F.Z.S.

Consisting of about 500 Illustrations of the Orders and Sub-Orders, and showing their range in Geological time. Some recent types are introduced, and the Natural History succession is observed as nearly as possible, each group being commenced in the lower strata and carried upwards to its close or to more recent times, thus indicating through what period any Orders and Genera existed.

IV. THE VEGETABLE KINGDOM. By A. HENFREY.

Arranged according to the Natural System, each Order being illustrated by numerous examples of representative species showing the habits of the Plants, as well as dissections of the Flowers and Fruits.

V. THE ORDERS AND FAMILIES OF MOLLUSCA.
 By Dr. WOODWARD.

Represented in six classes: Cephalopoda, consisting of two orders divided into 6 Families, and illustrated by 20 examples; Gastropoda, four Orders, divided into 31 Families, supplemented by three Sub-Orders, and illustrated by 180 examples; Pteropoda, illustrated by 18 examples; Conchifera, divided into 20 Families, illustrated by 12 examples; Brachiopoda, illustrated by 11 examples; and Tunicata, illustrated by 20 examples.

VI. MYRIAPODA—ARACHNIDA—CRUSTACEA—ANNELIDA, and ENTOMOZOA. By ADAM WHITE and Dr. BAIRD.

The numerous tribes represented under these Orders are illustrated by upwards of 150 examples, including Centipedes, Spiders, Crabs, Sandhoppers, Scorpions, Scorpions, &c., the various Families and Sections being carefully distinguished.

VII. INSECTS. By ADAM WHITE.

Contains nearly 250 drawings of the different Orders: Coleoptera—the Beetle Tribe; Euphylliptera—Earwigs, &c.; Orthoptera—Crickets, &c.; Hymenoptera—Thrips, &c.; Neuroptera—Mayflies, &c.; Trichoptera—Caddisflies, &c.; Hymenoptera—Bees, &c.; Strepsiptera—Hylechthrus rubis; Lepidoptera—Moth tribes; Butterflies, with knobs at the ends of their antennae; Homoptera—including the most anomalous forms of insects, such as the Mexican Lantern Fly and others; Heteroptera—Bugs, &c.; Diptera—Flies, Gnats, &c.; and Aphaniptera—Fleas, &c.

VIII. FISHES. By P. H. GOSSE.

Showing over 130 of the most conspicuous types, arranged in their Orders and Families. Illustrations are given of the Acanthopterygii, or Fishes, having some of their fins spinous and others flexible, consisting of 17 Families; the Malacopterygii, or Fishes with soft fins, represented in 12 Families; the Plectognathi, in 2 Families (naked toothed fishes and file fishes); and the Cartilaginali, in 5 Families.

IX. REPTILIA and AMPHIBIA. By Drs. BELL and BAIRD.

Contains 105 figures of the principal typical forms, namely: Chelonians—Turtles, &c., 21 species; Loricata—Crocodiles, 3 species; Amphibienia, 2 species; Serpentes—Lizards, &c., 20 species; Ophidia—Snakes, &c., 24 species; and Amphibia—Frogs, &c., 25 species.

X. BIRDS. By GEORGE GRAY.

PEACOCK'S WORKS.

The COLLECTED WORKS of THOMAS LOVE PEACOCK, including his Novels, Poems, Fugitive Pieces, Criticisms, &c. With a Preface by Lord HOUGHTON, and Edited by HENRY COLE, C.B. With a Biographical Sketch by his Granddaughter. 3 vols. crown 8vo, with Portrait, 31s. 6d.

"His fine wit
Makes such a wound, the knife is lost in it;
A strain too learned for a shallow age,
Too wise for selfish bigot; let his page,
Which charms the chosen spirits of the time,
Fold itself up for a sadder clime
Of years to come, and find its recompense
In that just expectation."—SHELLEY.

"These delightful volumes will be a valuable addition to the library of anyone who appreciates fun and merriment, playful good-natured satire, and true humour. There is no doubt that there are a considerable number of people who know nothing of Peacock, and those people we should advise at once to make his acquaintance. To those who know him already, and who in 1860 welcomed with pleasure his amusing 'Gryll Grange,' which contained a clever imitation of the Aristophanic Comedy, and was full of clever and humorous description, this resuscitation of his works will be very acceptable. There is no doubt that Literature has gained by the republication of these novels, which could never to have been allowed to drop out of the reading world."—Fanny Fair.

I.

VISCOUNT STRANGFORD'S NOVEL.

ANGELA PISANI. By the late George SYDNEY SMYTHE, Seventh Viscount Strangford. With a Memoir of the Author, by the VISCOUNTESS STRANGFORD. In 3 vols. crown 8vo.

"The characters in 'Angela Pisani' are elaborately worked out; the scenes and incidents are rich, varied, and poetic; the historical and political ideas interwoven with the dialogue are bold and striking; while over all breathes that nameless charm which tells us we are in the presence of genius."—Fall Mail Gazette.

"One of the features, as it will doubtless soon be one of the fashions, of the season of 1875."—The World.

II.

MR. HAWLEY SMART'S NEW NOVEL.

"TWO KISSES." By Hawley Smart, Author of "Breeds Langton," "False Cards," &c. In 3 vols. crown 8vo.

"It is refreshing to meet with a hearty, healthy, and genuine novel such as the author of 'Two Kisses' gives us. The interest is never allowed to flag for a moment, and there is no reason that 'Two Kisses' should not be one of the most popular novels of the season."—Morning Post.

CONCORDIA.

A JOURNAL OF MUSIC AND THE SISTER ARTS.
To be published every Saturday, price 4d.

This day is issued the first number of "Concordia," a journal chiefly devoted to the interests of music.

While holding definite opinions, "Concordia" will strive to make itself the organ of an enlightened eclecticism. Regarding every question without prejudice, and solely in the interest of art, it will encourage in its contributors and correspondents that free expression of ideas which ultimately establishes truth. Above all, it will be actuated by a desire to recognise and promote whatever is good in the new developments which are inseparable from the progressive nature of music.

A leading feature of "Concordia" will be the number and importance of its original Articles and Essays. Among the gentlemen who have already signified their willingness to contribute are:—

J. Barnby.
Joseph Bennett.
W. Chappell, F.S.A.
W. H. Cummings.
E. Dannreuther.
H. Sutherland Edwards.
Rev. H. B. Hawes, M.A.
Henry Howe.
John Hullah.
H. C. Lunn.

G. A. Macfarren, Prof. Mus. Cantab.
Walter Macfarren.
Professor H. S. Oakeley.
Ebenezer Prout, B.A.
C. K. Salaman.
Henry Smart.
Dr. Stainer, M.A.
T. L. Stille.
Dr. W. H. Stone, M.A.

From week to week notices of subjects connected with the sister arts of Poetry and Painting, the Drama, &c., will be contributed to "Concordia" by able writers.

As a medium of news "Concordia" will be singularly complete.

Special attention will be paid to that criticism of Art and its exponents, which is the greatest responsibility, as it is the greatest privilege of such a journal. On all matters involving criticism "Concordia" will speak with a single desire that the truth may be known.

The department of Reviews will receive the care demanded by its importance, and prominence will be given to the leading works published abroad.

Among other valuable features of "Concordia" will be, subject to the co-operation of the various Publishers, a weekly list of new music, and of the services, anthems, &c., to be sung in the cathedrals and chief parish churches on the Sunday following each issue.

It is believed that in "Concordia" the Art-loving public will have a thoroughly readable journal—one, that is to say, which interests the amateur not less than the connoisseur. No pains will be spared in order to secure this desirable result.

Annual Subscription, including postage, 12s. 6d.
A scale of charges for advertisements in "Concordia" may be had on application to the Publishers.

THE ANCIENT WORLD: being a Brief Extract of Early History founded on National Records and Other Sources. By J. A. G. BARTON.

WILLIAM BLACKWOOD &amp; SONS, Edinburgh and London.

Of whom may be had, by the same Author, crown 8vo, 5s.

BENGAL: an Account of the Country from the Earliest Times.

"A well-written account of an important portion of our Indian Empire. It gives a very full account of the physical peculiarities, the products and traditions of the district, and deals at some length with the characteristics and religious beliefs of the natives. It is in every way eminently readable, and the chapter upon the effects of British rule is judicial and significant."—Westminster Review.
"The author has supplied a want which many people in England must have often felt. . . . A volume which tells us in 250 pages nearly all that most of us would deem worth knowing about one of the earliest and most important of our Indian possessions."—Allen's Indian Mail.
"It contains a large amount of information, well arranged, and very readable."—Times of India.

Just published, price One Shilling.

SUPERNATURAL RELIGION;

AN INQUIRY INTO THE REALITY OF DIVINE REVELATION.

Sixth Edition, carefully revised, with Eighty Pages of new Preface.

"The writer of 'Supernatural Religion' has conferred a boon on all students of theology."—Westminster Review.

"The book proceeds from a man of ability, a scholar, and reasoner, whose discussions are conducted in a judicial method."—Athenæum.

"By far the most decisive, trenchant, and far-reaching of the direct contributions to theological controversy that have been made in this generation."—Fortnightly Review.

"It is not often that the gifts and acquirements necessary to the composition of so masterly and exhaustive a treatise as the present are united in the same person."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"We give a hearty welcome to this learned and able work. . . . The masterly examination of the evidences for the antiquity of the Christian Scriptures in these volumes, so far as we know, is an unparalleled specimen in the English language."—Spectator.

"It abounds with acuteness and overflows with reading."—Academy.

"This is beyond doubt an important book. . . . The talent is unquestionable. Independence of thought, keenness of insight, width of information are attested in every chapter."—Literary World.

"The style is for the most part extremely clear and forcible; the lines of argument are traced with a firm hand, and the abundance of illustrative material contained in the notes constantly enables the reader to exercise independent judgment on the statement of the text."—Inquirer.

"The examination of the first three Gospels in relation to the early Fathers down to the date of the Muratorian Fragment, is one of the most complete undertakings of the kind which we have in English."—Guardian.

"A very learned and exact book."—MATTHEW ARNOLD, in the Contemporary Review.

"It is written in a style so calm, with learning so weighty, and ability so great, that it at once demands attention and commands respect."—Scotsman.

"His work is always earnest, and generally clear, his reasonings are direct, though they sometimes appear to us overstrained, and his main conclusions it will be found difficult to shake."—Theological Review.

"It would be mere bigotry to deny the erudition, the logical power, and, on the whole, the reverent tone exhibited by the author."—Standard.

MR. VAN LAUN'S TRANSLATION OF MOLIÈRE.

WILL BE PUBLISHED ON MAY 15, VOLUME FIRST, Demy 8vo, cloth, price 18s.

THE COMPLETE DRAMATIC WORKS OF

MOLIÈRE,

RENDERED INTO ENGLISH BY HENRI VAN LAUN,

Translator of Taine's "History of English Literature."

With Prefatory Memoir, Introductory Notices, Appendices, and Notes. Illustrated with a Portrait and thirty-three Etchings, executed specially for this edition by M. AD. LALAUZE, of Paris.

TO FORM SIX VOLUMES, OCTAVO, PRICE 18s. EACH.

The following limited impressions, on LARGE PAPER, will be prepared for Subscribers :—

- I. 150 copies on superfine paper, with India proof impressions of the etchings, royal 8vo, One Guinea and a Half per volume.
- II. 30 copies on Whatman's Imperial Paper with proofs on China Paper, imp. 8vo, Two Guineas per volume.
- III. 20 copies on Whatman's Imperial Paper with proofs on China Paper, and an Extra Set of Artist's proofs on Japanese Paper, Two Guineas and a Half per volume.

More than a century having elapsed since the last edition of Molière in English was issued in this country, it has been thought desirable to supply the want in our literature by an entirely new translation of all his dramatic works.

Mr. Henri van Laun, whose rendering of M. Taine's "History of English Literature" received such high commendation, having undertaken the work of Translating and Editing, has endeavoured to give not only a faithful English translation of the great dramatist, but has also sought as far as possible to preserve the spirit and brilliancy of the original.

MOODY AND SANKEY.

AMERICAN ORGANS in every variety of CRAMER'S Manufacture and on CRAMER'S Three Years System.

Prices from 15 Guineas, or £1 11s. 6d. a Quarter.

CRAMER and Co. by no means wish it to be understood, as in some quarters it would seem to have been, that their AMERICAN ORGANS are used by Messrs. Moody and Sankey at their interesting meetings.

CRAMER'S instruments are much more solid in manufacture, and infinitely superior in quality of tone, and are certainly not open to the objection made by perhaps the most influential literary and musical journal to the imported organs :—

"Judged from the artistic point of view, the instrument is no more agreeable to the ear than is the stentorian power displayed by the singer."

Moreover, while CRAMER'S AMERICAN ORGANS are more satisfactorily made, and better finished in all respects, they are sold at prices varying from 15 to 25 per cent. below those of all imported instruments.

These, and all other instruments of CRAMER'S manufacture, can be had on the three years system, which, originated by CRAMER'S, has been partially adopted by other firms, but is carried out on a thoroughly large and liberal scale only by themselves.

IV.

THE NEW VOLUME BY THE AUTHOR OF "JOHNNY GIBB."

LIFE AMONG MY AIN FOLK.

"A picture of rural life in Aberdeenshire, as it used to be, vivid and certain, distinct and accurate, as that of any Flemish interior ever put on canvas by Jan Steen or Ostade."—Edinburgh Daily Review.

"A thoroughly conscientious piece of literary work. We are glad to have the opportunity of commending, as we do with the utmost unreserve, Mr. Alexander's book, as a life-like picture of the homesteads and belongings, the joys and the sorrows, the loves and the hatreds, the virtues and the sins, of our rural population."—Aberdeen Journal.

"A rich treat of description, character, humour, and broad fun. We have read it with pleasure, and are sure others would do the same. We commend the volume heartily."—Nonconformist.
